

Japanese University Convention

The College of Richard Collyer and Rikkyo School in England are pleased to announce the co-hosting of an inaugural convention of Japanese universities on Friday 27th September 2019 from 12.00pm to 4.00pm. This is an outstanding opportunity for sixth form students to learn more about studying in Japan as an undergraduate and will feature reputed universities with excellent international student provision. With several university stands, guest speakers talking about student life in Japan and how to choose courses and a cultural experience area, this new event is a must attend for sixth formers interested in Japanese culture, travel and study.

All staff speak English and all courses are taught 100% in English.
